A. E. F. SOLDIER IS TO BE BURIED HERE

Word Received That Body of Raymond Hamilton is Enroute Here For Interment

ARRIVES FROM OVERSEAS

Priv. Hamilton First Local Boy to Die on Foreign Soil—Legion Post to Take Charge

The body of Private Raymond Hamilton, the first Rush county soldier who died in foreign service during the recent war, is now enroute to this city for interment, according to a message received by his mother, Mrs. Edith McKee Crager, who now lives south of Andersonville.

Private Hamilton expired on December 8, 1917 in France, having contracted measles and later pneumonia. The message was received late Saturday by Mrs. Crager, and required an answer as to the destination to which the body should be sent, as it was on a ship entering the harbor at New York City, and was expected to be unloaded yesterday.

Mrs. Crager formerly lived at 143 North Spencer street in this city, and her son enlisted with Company B, which was organized in this city.

After leaving here for Camp Taylor, Private Hamilton was transferred to the famous Rainbow Division, Battery B, 115 Field Artillery, and was among the first who went across to France.

About the middle of November, 1917, an epidemic of measles prevailed among the soldiers, and the Rushville boy was taken fatally ill with measles and pneumonia. He was 20 years old at the time of his death.

Mrs. Crager wired the officials in New York to ship the body to Rushville upon arrival in New York, and word was expected to be received any time today that the body was enroute here for burial.

It is expected to arrive Wednesday or Thursday of this week and will be taken to the home of a relative in this city, where funeral services will be conducted. This is the first body of a Rush county soldier to be sent home, after dying in foreign lands, the expense being taken

TWO BARN BURN AT A LOSS OF $8,000

Fire Starts From Gasoline Engine on Will L. Walker Farm Near Carthage Sunday

REGISTERED SHORTHORN LOST

Two large stock barns on the farm of Will L. Walker, 3½ miles southwest of Carthage, were destroyed by fire Sunday morning about eight o'clock, when a gasoline engine used for pumping water, back-fired and set one of the buildings ablaze, and before the flames could be subdued, two barns were destroyed at a loss totalling approximately $8,000.

The barns were located side by side, and were used almost exclusively for housing valuable stock, grain and feed. One registered shorthorn cow was burned to death and Mr. Walker's prize bull, Lancaster Prince, was severely burned, and may die. Besides the stock and buildings, 40 tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats and 300 bushels of corn were destroyed in the barns. A few farming implements and machinery were in the buildings and were destroyed.

Mr. Walker today stated that he carried only a small amount of insurance, and that it would cost $12,000 to rebuild the structures. Most of the loss incurred was sustained by the loss of the buildings, as the insurance was carried on the stock and grain. The gasoline engine had been started and was left for only a short time yesterday morning, when the flames were discovered.

HORSE AND BUGGY STOLEN

Outfit Belonging to Will Casey is Found Today

A valuable horse and buggy owned by Will Casey, who lives on the Coleman farm, just northeast of Rushville, was stolen some time Saturday evening from the streets of Rushville, was found shortly before noon today at the C. I. & W. stock yards.

The horse and buggy was hitched to a tree in Morgan street, near the old Windsor Hotel building, and when Mr. Casey went to go home Saturday night, the outfit was missing. A search was conducted all day yesterday, but no trace could be found, and cities around here were notified to watch livery stables, in case an attempt was made to sell the outfit. An automobile belonging to William Moore of New Salem, disappeared from the streets on the Saturday night previous, and no trace has been heard from it.

TWO DEMANDS OF MINERS GRANTED

Operators Agree to Wage Increases to Remove Inequalities in Commission Awards

OTHER DEMANDS REJECTED

$2 a Day Increase for Day Workers and 10 Cents a Ton For Tonnage Workers Requested

(By United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 16.—Both of the demands made by the miners of the central competitive fields for adjustment of wage increases to remove inequalities were granted today by the operators at a meeting of the joint scale committee.

In presenting their demands to the operators, the miners charged that President Wilson's coal commission had given pickmen a 27 percent increase and day and month workers an increase of only 20 percent. The operators agreed to increase the pay of the day and monthly workers so they would conform with that of the pickmen.

Operators refused, however, to consider other demands of the miners which included:

Wage increases of $2 a day for day workers; 10 cents a ton for tonnage workers abolition of the penalty clause fining a miner $1 a day for illegal strikes.

The miners asked that the pay increases date from August 12. Whether the operators would agree to make the increases retroactive was not announced.

ARE ACCUSED OF SPEEDING

Chafeurs Driving Cars With Cox Party Arrested

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 16.—Affidavits charging speeding by Governor Cox's party on their return from Wheeling yesterday and calling for the arrest of the four chauffeurs, were filed with the Licking County officials at Newark by Joe Shipley of Jacksontown.

Shipley said he would not attempt action against Cox or the newspaper men personally stating that the laws limit to deal only with the operators of the cars.

FOR REDENBAUGH BONDS

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 16.—Petitions for authority to issue bonds for a cement road along the county line between Shelby and Rush counties was filed with the state tax board today. The petitions were filed by J. A. Redenbaugh of Rush county. The amount of the bonds to be issued were $41,920. A similar petition was filed by Shelby county a month ago.

ASSEMBLY TO PAY EXPENSES

No Deficit in Chautauqua This Year in Spite of Increased Costs in All Departments

HOW OFFICIALS MANAGED IT

Raising Price of Guarantors' Tickets For Next Year Imperative—Rain is No Handicap

For the first time during the sixteenth annual session of the Rush county chautauqua, rain got in its handwork on Sunday, the closing day, but in this day of automobiles it does not interfere much. This was proved yesterday when the crowd was practically normal in spite of a steady downpour of rain all afternoon and threatening weather with occasional showers at night.

In view of these handicaps, the Sunday crowd was a revelation to chautauqua officials and others who feared the attendance would be considerably reduced, and put the association safely over the deadline for this year. It was announced today that receipts were large enough to pay this year's expenses and that there would be no deficit in spite of increased expenses and improvements made on the stage at a cost of $50.

The fact that Sunday's receipts were only $25 less than the closing day last year is evidence enough that rain did not cut much of a figure in the attendance. The afternoon gate admissions ran $50 less than on the afternoon of the last day in 1919, but last night's receipts were $25 more for the closing program last year. The coliseum was comfortably filled yesterday afternoon and last night practically every seat was taken.

Chautauqua officials said today that twelve hundred guarantors tickets for next year had been pledged at the advanced price of two dollars. This is the same number as has always been issued and they were as quickly taken by guarantors as when they sold for $1.50. Appearing in the list of guarantors for next year are twenty-four persons who were never guarantors before. All of them signed voluntarily. This means that some persons who neglected to sign a pledge will not have the privilege of being a guarantor next year because the limit has been reached.

It was announced during the week that the guarantors' tickets would be two dollars and there apparently was no complaint on that score. People generally realize that talent like everything else costs more and many marveled at the fact that the chautauqua was able to operate without a deficit this year at the same price which has always been charged.

It would have been impossible to sell season tickets for $1.50 this year if it had not been for the two political days when there was no expense for speakers, and because of the fact that Charles E. Watkins, who spoke twice on the opening day only charged $50 whereas the expense of two Sunday lectures is generally $250.

The increase in the price of season tickets was imperative because talent will be even more costly next year than this because of the increased expense of traveling. Furthermore, the additional revenue will enable the program committee to obtain more costly talent.

GRUBBS PROVIDES BOND

Otis Grubbs of Indianapolis, who was arrested late Friday and brought here on a charge of grand larceny, was released from jail yesterday when he provided a cash bond of $500. The charge against Grubbs was filed by A. N. Harold, who alleges that he took about $60 worth of furnishings that belonged in the building formerly used by the Windsor Hotel. Grubbs and two other men were engaged in decorating the building. No further arrests have been made.

LAW ALLOWS 60 DAYS FOR CHANGE

Legislation by Special Session Gives Rushville Until Sept. 26 to Change Classification

IN 4TH CLASS SINCE 1919

Increased Valuations Advances City But Council Never Raised Salaries of Officials

The fact that Rushville is one of twenty-two Indiana cities which have been advanced in classification either by increased population or increased valuation of property for taxation purposes which was announced in the Indianapolis Sunday Star, was not news here because it was known last fall that Rushville would be rated as a fourth class city when her taxables were boosted above $7,500,000, after the state board of tax commissioners put on the horizontal increases in assessments.

Although entitled to an advance in salary under the law, the Rushville city officials have never taken advantage of the opportunity to increase their pay. Whether they will yet avail themselves of the opportunity, which will cease to exist September 26, under the terms of a law passed by the special session of the legislature, is not known.

Emergency legislation was passed by the special session to facilitate the transition of cities from one class to another, providing that when one city moves up to the next higher class, the city officials may receive the increased pay of the new classification providing the city council acts on the matter within sixty days after the passage of the act, which was approved by the governor July 28.

This law also provides that cities of the fourth class such as Rushville may abolish the board of public works and the board of public safety and place these duties in the hands of special committees of the council. It is further stated that in fourth class cities the mayor shall act as city judge. The old law on this subject made these two boards and a city judge mandatory but few cities thus advanced to the fourth class acted as the law directed, but continued with the old organization.

Connersville and Shelbyville, like Rushville, are both advanced to fourth class cities by reason of their property valuations, but Greenfield, Greensburg and other county seat towns in this section remain in the fifth class except Newcastle, which becomes a fifth class city because of the 1920 census giving it a population of more than 10,000.

ARRESTED FOLLOWING FIGHT SUNDAY NIGHT

Harry (Paddy) Barrett is Accused of Assaulting Fred Bever—Virgil Miller is Held

CHARGED WITH TWO OFFENSES

Harry (Paddy) Barrett was arrested last night by Patrolman Pea, charged with assault and battery, after a fight on the streets in which Fred Bever was alleged to have been assaulted by Barrett. Barrett and two other men were in West First street, just off of Main, and when the policeman arrived, Bever was said to be getting the worst of the fight, and he separated them. No charges were preferred against the other two men, as the policeman did not see them strike Bever, and stated that they were attempting to separate the two men.

Patrolman Pea also arrested Virgil Miller Saturday night, twice within ten minutes of each other. He was first arrested charged with violating the parking ordinance, and ten minutes later was arrested for turning his machine around in the middle of a block, and stopping traffic while doing so.

All three cases were scheduled to come up for a hearing at 4 p.m.

BELIEVED FACTORY AFIRE

Someone Phoned Alarm When Lights Were Turned On

The fire department responded to a telephone call shortly after eight o'clock Saturday night to the Reynolds Manufacturing Company, where a person in that vicinity became alarmed, when the lights in the building were suddenly put on by an employee who was returning with an automobile belonging to the firm.

Chief Williamson stated today that people should be certain that a fire is in progress before turning in an alarm, and it must be borne in mind that anyone found calling the fire department where there is no fire, is subject to a fine of $25 and imprisonment. A device is being introduced in the telephone office to check up all telephone calls coming into the fire station, and people should heed the warning.

BOLSHEVIKI IN 5 MILES OF WARSAW

Russians Fling Line Half Way Around Capital and Battle Starts Along Whole Front

REDS ORDERED TO TAKE CITY

Documents Taken From Prisoners by Poles Disclose Such Commands Were Issued

(By United Press)

Moscow, Aug. 16.—The Bolsheviks have pushed their lines to a point five miles from Warsaw where the battle is continuing, it was officially announced today. The communiqué said there was fighting on the entire line, five miles from Warsaw, on the east side of the capital.

The Russians have flung their line one-half way around Warsaw, it was officially announced today.

Warsaw, Aug. 16.—A great battle for Warsaw was started along the entire front, the war office's official statement declared today.

Both the Poles and the Russians have launched attacks at many places where fighting raged.

The third and sixteenth Bolshevik armies have received definite orders to capture Warsaw at any cost, according to documents taken from Russian prisoners, the war office announced.

Every kind of arms would not halt the attack now, it was stated. The sound of battle has been distinctly audible in Warsaw for hours and at night the sky in the north and east is like a horseshoe of fire.

Many shops are boarded and houses deserted. The streets are empty. Processions of thousands of wounded are coming back from the front. The men received the best care possible but surgical facilities are inadequate.

"There was a very serious attack launched against us from the northern works," the communiqué said.

"The Poles were attacked and dispersed three regiments. One Bolshevik detachment was completely massacred. There was an unusual battle at Cholodoff sector with the cavalry attacking cavalry."

U. S. CRUISER SENT TO BALTIC

Washington, Aug. 16.—Rear Admiral Huse, commanding the United States Cruiser Pittsburgh, has been ordered to the Baltic Sea to protect American citizens in that district.

The Pittsburgh will be accompanied by a destroyer. The naval department took this step in the belief that American refugees will be fleeing to the Baltic ports as the result of the Bolshevik offensive against Poland, it was announced.

The American naval force in the Black Sea, Mediterranean and Adriatic waters where conditions are also unsettled, will soon be reinforced by the battleship, St. Louis, and by six destroyers for that district to protect many American relief workers scattered throughout that area.

HITS HIGH LIVING COSTS IN NEW WAY

Roy L. Smith Gets in Some Body Blows at The Chautauqua Sunday Afternoon

FOUR KINDS OF LIVING

Garner Jubilee Co. Please Large Audiences—Crawford Adams Co. a Winner

Roy L. Smith, rapid-fire talker as well as thinker, who addressed a chautauqua audience Sunday afternoon, attacked the high cost of living question at a new angle. He called it the high cost of low living and proved how costly it is not to live on a high physical, intellectual, moral and spiritual plane.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, is pastor of the Simpson Methodist church in Minneapolis, gave his pedigree first so there would be no misunderstandings on that score, and then he literally tore present day living into shreds by showing its absurdities.

The Garner Jubilee company entertained the audience for an hour in the afternoon and with a complete concert at night. They were at their best with the camp meeting songs and old familiar melodies of the southland. That they made good in the afternoon, although they had been up all night and had no noon meal, was demonstrated by the size of the crowd which packed the coliseum at night.

The Crawford Adams company lived up to its reputation in the concert Saturday and delighted an audience which was larger than the rule for Saturday night. Mr. Adams captivated the crowd with his violin playing and they kept him at it until his fingers became so sore that he could no longer press the strings—so he told a story. Mr. Adams demonstrated his versatility by rendering some very classical numbers and then calling on the audience to suggest something for him to play, popular or otherwise. Close to a dozen suggestions were made and he played every one of them in fine fashion, with one exception, and he evidently forgot that, because no one doubted that he could play it after he had revealed his ability by covering such a wide range of music.

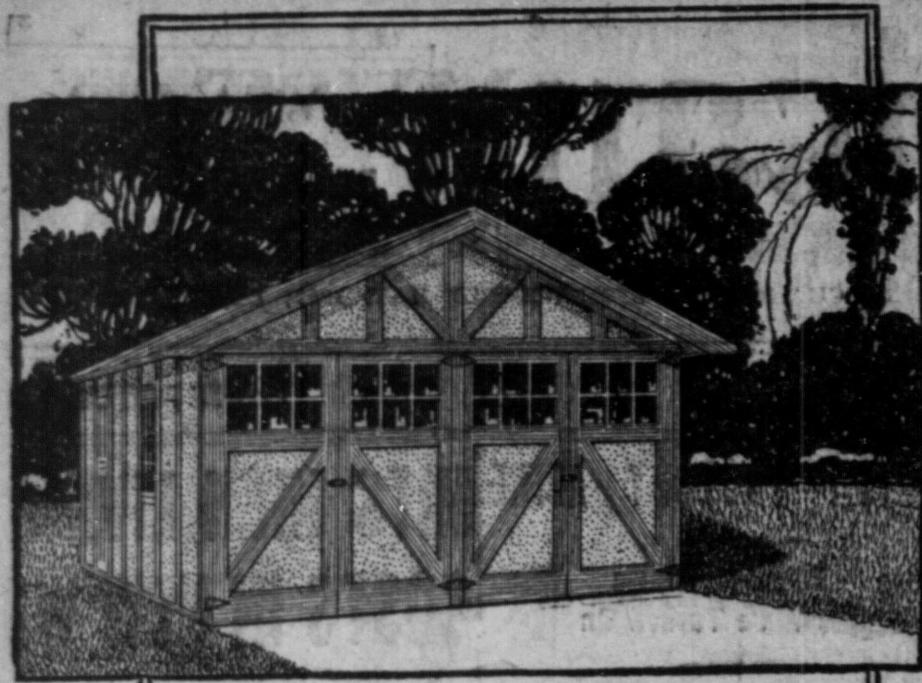

The accompanist contributed much to the delightful program and Miss Roseth Breed, reader, delighted in the audience's response. Continued on Page Two firing away with gatling-gun regularity. He kept it up until 5:35 and interest never lagged a minute.

"The most contagious thing in the world is good health," he declared, discussing the high cost of low physical living. "The trouble is that people expose themselves by low living to the flu, love affairs and so forth when they should be exposing themselves to good health. If the Lord had not done more to keep people well than to make them sick, the whole race would be exterminated."

Three requisites of keeping well, he said, was to get plenty of fresh air, plenty of sunshine and plenty of sleep.

"I have been told," he continued, "that there is so much fresh air in the country because the country folk keep all of the bad air shut up in their houses. Put up the windows, the draft is over. It is an easy matter to get to the grave because three paths are open—the allopath, homeopath and the osteopath, but health is still easier by obeying the laws of nature."

"Get plenty of sunshine," the speaker said, "The physicians and hospitals use it to cure tuberculosis. But it is put to better use in preventing tuberculosis. It is the best disinfectant in the world. Try more of it."

He also urged plenty of sleep and in passing said that he did not understand why, if God had intended men to use their noses for a smokestack, it was not put on upside down.

"It is not a question of how much it costs you to get through college, but it is a question of how much it is going to cost you to get through life without a college education," said Smith, discussing the high cost of low intellectual living.

He defined wealth as the power to enjoy life. He showed how wealthy people were because they possessed all their senses and proved that every person was worth a half million from the neck up, even if it was solid ivory. The lecturer declared he was worth a million below the belt because John D. Rockefeller had offered a million for a new stomach.

"America has learned how to laugh but has forgotten how to think," asserted Smith. "The sign of an educated man is that he can be happy after spending a half hour with himself."

"Every man or woman here either raises or lowers the average in Rushville by their moral living," declared the speaker. "I don't know anything about your community, but my guess is that the best thing some people can do for Rushville is to move to Connersville."

He declared the average town does not have a boy problem; it is an old man problem because if the men will behave themselves, the boys will be all right.

"As soon as any community forgets that boys and girls are the best crop they can grow, then moral decay will set in," said the lecturer. Every lawbreaker compels law-abiding citizen to help pay the high cost of low living."

Discussing the high cost of low spiritual living, Smith pointed out that some people think they have religion when they have a face long enough to eat oatmeal out of a churn and that others believe they have God in their heart when they have the devil in their liver.

Teen Years of Rheumatism Gone and He Feels Like New Man, Says Peck

Before I took Tanlac I had suffered with muscular rheumatism for ten years, but now I am free from pain and have gained twenty pounds in weight," said Loren R. Clark, of 1032 East Columbia street, Indianapolis, Ind., who is employed at L. & N. Railroad shops.

"My arms and fingers were so tired and sore that I couldn't handle wrench or hammer to do any good and when I tried to get under car or stoop over my back hurt bad I could hardly straighten up, times I had awful pains and aches after eating, gas would come and work up around my heart in a pressure that nearly took my breath, I couldn't eat what I liked if I ate anything like cabbage made me sick. I felt tired all the time and became so weak and nervous that I couldn't rest at night. I started getting better before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac. My rheumatism is all gone and now do my work at the shops well as any man there. I eat what I want, even cabbage, and never have any more trouble. I've only taken five bottles of Tanlac but feel as well as I ever did in life."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dalton Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Brown, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McRae, and in New Salem by Mrs. A. Hankins, R. R. 2—Adv.

Stiff? Sore?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint often is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pains, stiffness, soreness, salloskin and puffiness under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

Foley Kidney Pills

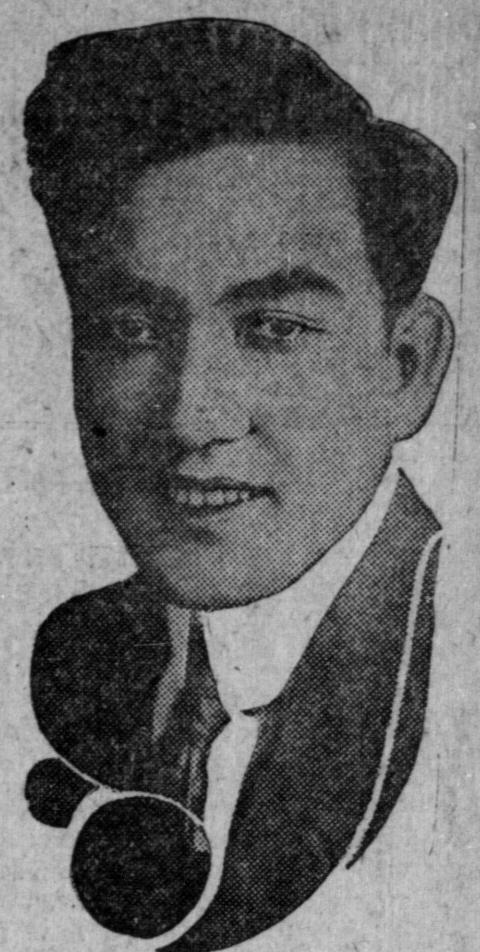

help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause these aches and pains. They act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 400 E. 50th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache and urinary trouble. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and will say that I highly recommend them to anyone troubled in that way, as they are excellent."

The Negro at The Polls

Time was when Henry N. Spaan, who delivered the main address at the chautauque democratic day, sought to drive the negro out of his party, but he may feel differently about the matter now that he is a candidate for congress. At any rate it is not amiss to show his attitude which is reflected in a speech made before the German-American Democratic club in Indianapolis March 20, 1902.

Mr. Spaan's speech on that occasion was indorsed every word of it, by the club, according to a report of the meeting of the club which was published as follows March 20, 1902 in the Indianapolis Journal:

The German-American Democratic club held its annual election last night and turned over a new leaf by denouncing the negro in politics. The club expressed itself unanimously in favor of ridding the party of "niggers." After the meeting the members shook hands and congratulated each other over its action and new policy with declarations that it would go into effect at once and last forever. The action was taken by indorsing "every word" of a speech that had been made by Henry A. Spaan during the evening, which was a vituperative arraignment against the negro at the polls.

Alluding to the negro Spaan said:

"We want to build up a white man's party in this community and not based upon votes bought and sold as cattle are in the market. Personally I am in favor of the Democratic party inserting a plank in its platform that we are tired of a negro domination and that we will only ask white men to vote with us, and that we are opposed to being ruled by a class of men that are bought and sold as vegetables on the market."

Joseph Schaub moved that a vote of thanks be tendered the speaker for his address and his motion was amended so as to "endorse every word" of the speech. The motion carried by a unanimous rising vote. Other speeches were made by Jacob Hinckley, Albert Sahn and Chris Warweg.

Let's be Fair

During the past few months we have several times heard our home merchants criticised for the prices they charge for their goods.

The home merchant does charge a higher price—a much higher one—than he did before the war. He is compelled to do so or go out of business.

He is paying enormously high prices for his goods in the wholesale markets.

He is paying freight rates and cartage.

His help costs him more money and his overhead expenses are greater.

Everywhere he turns he is forced to pay a heavy increase in the cost of conducting his business.

Added to this; he is under an additional pressure in paying the high cost of supporting his family and himself.

All of this must come out of the business, and this can only be done by charging a reasonable percentage of profit over the wholesale cost of his goods.

The home merchant can not afford to profit. Were he to do so he would soon be trapped and would thereafter be a dead one in his community.

Prices are high—abnormally high—but we believe the home merchants are as reasonable in their charges as can be expected under existing conditions.

Dr. M. C. Sexton Passes State Medical Examination

Marshall Cullen Sexton of this city passed the state medical examination with honors, according to a dispatch from Indianapolis, and the Rushville physician ranked third in a class of 31 that took the examination in July. Dr. Sexton is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Sexton of this city, and has engaged in general practice in this city. Of the 31 applicants for licenses all passed the examination, Miss Anita Muhl of Indianapolis ranking first, John S. Brown of Sullivan, second, and Dr. Sexton of this city third. Two women were included in the 31 applicants.

6. Per Diem of Auditor and Treasurer as Members of Board of Review.—The auditor and treasurer of each county will be entitled to a compensation of $5. for each day they serve as members of the county board of review during the years 1919 and 1920.

7. Salaries of City Officials.—In all cases where any city advances to a higher class, by reason of an increase in population or assessed valuation of property, all city officers are entitled to receive the salaries as fixed by law for such city of a higher class, and the common council may adopt an ordinance within 60 days fixing the salaries of city officials. In fourth class cities, the council may abolish the board of public safety and delegate the duties of such boards to a committee of the council.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Rushville people.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3rd St., Rushville, says: "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. It started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys, dizzy spell followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind that I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me I get Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give me good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

No Profiteering In Oil

THE Federal Trade Commission in its report to Congress, emphasized the point that the recent advances in prices of crude and refined oils were a natural result of increased demand, coupled with the difficulty experienced by the oil companies in getting adequate supplies of crude.

Other factors contributing were increased costs of drilling, producing and operating generally; also the influence of the unfavorable developments in Mexico in the last few months.

The official statement of the commission is refreshing to those who are familiar with the conditions.

Not only does no profiteering exist at the present time, but facts demonstrate that there has been no disposition on the part of the oil industry to take advantage of any of the circumstances which might have justified price advances.

During the war, the entire petroleum industry united to hold down prices, even at the risk of actual loss.

During recent transportation difficulties, while strikes actually created a shortage of gasoline in some parts of the country, nevertheless price advances did not take place.

The value to the public of such a highly trained organization as that maintained by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is obvious. Anticipating and preparing for difficulties in refining and distribution of petroleum products, are some of the functions of this Company.

LOCAL MAN IS RE-ELECTED

E. L. Kennedy Chosen Clerk of The Whitewater Baptist Association

Local members of the Primitive Baptist church have returned from attending the annual meeting of the Whitewater Baptist association which was held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Baptist church east of Connersville. Officers of the association for the ensuing year were re-elected and include E. D. Harlan of Connersville as Moderator and Emmett L. Kennedy of Rushville as clerk of the association. The association at the business session decided to hold the next annual meeting at the Second Williams Creek church, northwest of Connersville. Many people from Rushville attended the three day session, and the local church was represented by E. L. Kennedy, M. E. Newhouse and Gurney Cohee.

TO RACE AT CONNERSVILLE

Star Tramp, the Rushville trotter, will be raced at the Fayette county fair at Connersville this week, probably on Friday, and Albert Capp will drive him again. Star Tramp won third money at the Henry county fair at Newcastle last Friday in the 2:22 trot. Only three heats of the race were raced due to rain.

Whole Family Is Smiling Now

We're rundown, nervous, snappy and irritable as we were half-sick, but kept our feet when we were not able to be about. All taking Dreco and smiles replace the frowns.

"Our whole family was half-sick, had no vitality, lost weight, did not sleep well, had no appetite and felt generally miserable, but kept dragging around, trying to attend to our duties and consequently became cross, snappy and irritable, for it is very hard to be in a good pleasant frame of mind when you are not well," said Mrs. Georgia Larison of 1103 South 1st Street, Terre Haute, Ind.

"It seemed like every change in the weather affected us, for we caught cold easily and had aches and pains all over our bodies. Everything we ate disagreed with us, fermented in our stomachs, causing sour gas to form and we were dreadfully constipated. Dreco has cleaned out the bowels, brought about natural, easy actions, we have no more aches and pains; sleep restfully and awaken full of vigor and vitality, ready for whatever the day has in store for us."

"Life is now a pleasure and we give Dreco lots of credit for the harvest of smiles it has produced. We are all going to continue to take Dreco until we are entirely well and will be only too glad to tell our friends about that wonderful root and herb remedy."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—(Advt.)

SPEAKER FLAYS "GOODRICHISM"

Dr. C. B. McCullough, Democratic Nominee for Governor, Devotes Time to State Administration

SPEAKS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Henry N. Spaan, Congressional Candidate, Lauds Wilson Regime and Criticizes Harding

The democratic speakers at the chautauqua Saturday afternoon, Dr. C. B. McCulloch, candidate for governor, and Henry N. Spaan, candidate for congress from the seventh district, upheld the Wilson administration, pointing out the wonderful things that it had accomplished, and severely criticized the four years of "Goodrichism".

J. Arbuckle, candidate for joint senator, acted as chairman, and before the speaking began, introduced the various state candidates who were present, and also presented the county candidates who were on the stage and in the audience.

Dr. McCulloch was the first speaker of the afternoon and devoted the first part of his address to incidents in his own life that connected with the world War, in which he took a part, in foreign lands. His address led up slowly to the administration of Woodrow Wilson, and with his name being mentioned, the crowd cheered wildly.

The speaker did not tarry long on the affairs of the nation, but came down to those in which he is most interested—the affairs of Indiana. Praising the administrations of Thomas Marshall and Samuel Ralston, he urged that "Goodrichism" be thrown out, and common sense restored such as was had during the two former democratic administrations.

The gubernatorial candidate strongly emphasized the fact that the affairs of this state were formerly divided into three parts, the judiciary, legislative and executive, but that for four years two of these had given way for the executive, and that it was "truly a Goodrich administration".

The tax law was assailed from every angle, and stood out prominently as the main issue from the democratic viewpoint in the coming election. He promised that the democratic administration would pledge themselves to right the wrongs of the tax law, and asserted that "there are many phases that need changing".

Dr. McCulloch scored the present administration for spending money foolishly in calling two special sessions of the legislature. He pointed out the first special session was for a single day in which the women were granted suffrage.

Declaring, "You people must not misunderstand me; I am and always was for women suffrage, but there were other things that should have been considered when the special session was called. What I do object to is, before Gov. Goodrich would call that legislature into session, he saw and secured a promise from every republican that only that one thing would come before it, and nothing more", said Dr. McCulloch.

"There were so many other things right at that time that needed attention," continued the speaker. There was the recognition of the soldiers, a blue sky law and many other things that I could mention, but the governor held them down to his one particular thought. It is another example of executive rule, where the executive has usurped his power".

Then he took up the second special session, calling attention to the fact that there was some fault found even among republicans, with the tax law, because it was changed at this session. He criticized the Blue Sky law and stated that the democrats when given control would mend both of these things, and promised that the public school system in the state would be improved and that the public institutions would be operated on a better scale, especially the insane hospitals.

Henry Spaan, the next speaker, dwelt more with national affairs, reading the greater part of this speech from manuscript form. The first half hour he attacked Senator Harding, asserting that republican newspapers throughout the country were not in favor of the candidate, and devoted the half hour to reading editorials from various newspapers.

The editorials as a whole were taken from the Indianapolis newspapers, and were printed within the first few days following the convention at Chicago.

He emphasized that what he was saying was not the thoughts of the democrats, but that the words came from the organs of the republican party.

He declared that the republican party did not hold a convention in Chicago, but that a small group of senators held a convention, and in the hours of early morning put across Sen. Harding, even though he was not the choice of the people.

Pointing with pride to the administration of Woodrow Wilson, he declared that the republicans were basing claims against it on trivial grounds, pointing out the strife and serious handicap that the president had been under for four years.

Mr. Spaan also declared that at the beginning of the war Great Britain had ten billion dollars more in wealth in their country than the United States, and at the close of the war the wealth in this country exceeded the combined wealth of Great Britain, France and Germany, and that the European countries today owed the United States eleven billion dollars, and before the war we owed them four billion dollars.

His concluding remarks dwelt upon the policies and principles of the democratic party both in local and foreign affairs.

WARN AGAINST THE RECURRANCE OF PEST

Entomologist States Chinch Bugs Will Reappear Next Spring Unless Adults Are Killed Off

IS A VERY DESTRUCTIVE BUG

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 16.—The entomological division of the state conservation points out the possibility of a recurrence of the chinch bug pest next spring, and warns that if we have a mild winter the brood will be unusually large unless steps are taken this fall to kill off the adults. The bugs winter as adults in sheltered places along fences, in ditches and where grasses and weeds accumulate. Farmers are advised to keep such places cleared and if there was a heavy infestation of bugs this summer, remove fodder shocks from infected fields as the bugs will winter well in them if they are permitted to remain.

Chinch bugs migrate from winter quarters to the wheat, oats and rye in early spring and then pass into the green corn in vast numbers in search of succulent food. They will literally kill a corn crop if their advance is not stopped.

A. E. F. SOLDIER IS TO BE BURIED HERE

Word Received That Body of Raymond Hamilton is Enroute Here For Interment

ARRIVES FROM OVERSEAS

Priv. Hamilton First Local Boy to Die on Foreign Soil—Legion Post to Take Charge

The body of Private Raymond Hamilton, the first Rush county soldier who died in foreign service during the recent war, is now enroute to this city for interment, according to a message received by his mother, Mrs. Edith McKee Crager, who now lives south of Andersonville.

Private Hamilton expired on December 8, 1917 in France, having contracted measles and later pneumonia. The message was received late Saturday by Mrs. Crager, and required an answer as to the destination to which the body should be sent, as it was on a ship entering the harbor at New York City, and was expected to be unloaded yesterday.

Mrs. Crager formerly lived at 143 North Spencer street in this city, and her son enlisted with Company B, which was organized in this city.

After leaving here for Camp Taylor, Private Hamilton was transferred to the famous Rainbow Division, Battery B, 115 Field Artillery, and was among the first who went across to France.

About the middle of November, 1917, an epidemic of measles prevailed among the soldiers, and the Rushville boy was taken fatally ill with measles and pneumonia. He was 20 years old at the time of his death.

Mrs. Crager wired the officials in New York to ship the body to Rushville upon arrival in New York, and word was expected to be received any time today that the body was enroute here for burial.

It is expected to arrive Wednesday or Thursday of this week and will be taken to the home of a relative in this city, where funeral services will be conducted. This is the first body of a Rush county soldier to be sent home, after dying in foreign lands, the expense being taken

TWO BARNS BURN AT A LOSS OF $8,000

Fire Starts From Gasoline Engine on Will L. Walker Farm Near Carthage Sunday

REGISTERED SHORTHORN LOST

Two large stock barns on the farm of Will L. Walker, 3½ miles southwest of Carthage, were destroyed by fire Sunday morning about eight o'clock, when a gasoline engine used for pumping water, back-fired and set one of the buildings ablaze, and before the flames could be subdued, two barns were destroyed at a loss totalling approximately $8,000.

The barns were located side by side, and were used almost exclusively for housing valuable stock, grain and feed. One registered shorthorn cow was burned to death and Mr. Walker's prize bull, Lancaster Prince, was severely burned, and may die. Besides the stock and buildings, 40 tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats and 300 bushels of corn were destroyed in the barns. A few farming implements and machinery were in the buildings and were destroyed.

Mr. Walker today stated that he carried only a small amount of insurance, and that it would cost $12,000 to rebuild the structures. Most of the loss incurred was sustained by the loss of the buildings, as the insurance was carried on the stock and grain. The gasoline engine had been started and was left for only a short time yesterday morning, when the flames were discovered.

HORSE AND BUGGY STOLEN

Outfit Belonging to Will Casey Is Found Today

A valuable horse and buggy owned by Will Casey, who lives on the Coleman farm, just northeast of Rushville, was stolen some time Saturday evening from the streets of Rushville, was found shortly before noon today at the C. I. & W. stock yards.

The horse and buggy was hitched to a tree in Morgan street, near the old Windsor Hotel building, and when Mr. Casey went to go home Saturday night, the outfit was missing. A search was conducted all day yesterday, but no trace could be found, and cities around here were notified to watch livery stables, in case an attempt was made to sell the outfit. An automobile belonging to William Moore of New Salem, disappeared from the streets on the Saturday night previous, and no trace has been heard from it.

TWO DEMANDS OF MINERS GRANTED

Operators Agree to Wage Increases to Remove Inequalities in Commission Awards

OTHER DEMANDS REJECTED

$2 a Day Increase for Day Workers and 10 Cents a Ton For Tonnage Workers Requested

(By United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 16.—Both of the demands made by the miners of the central competitive fields for adjustment of wage increases to remove inequalities were granted today by the operators at a meeting of the joint scale committee.

In presenting their demands to the operators, the miners charged that President Wilson's coal commission had given pickmen a 27 percent increase and day and month workers an increase of only 20 percent. The operators agreed to increase the pay of the day and monthly workers so they would conform with that of the pickmen.

Operators refused, however, to consider other demands of the miners which included:

Wage increases of $2 a day for day workers; 10 cents a ton for tonnage workers abolition of the penalty clause fining a miner $1 a day for illegal strikes.

The miners asked that the pay increases date from August 12. Whether the operators would agree to make the increases retroactive was not announced.

Chafeurs Driving Cars With Cox Party Arrested

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 16.—Affidavits charging speeding by Governor Cox's party on their return from Wheeling yesterday and calling for the arrest of the four chauffeurs, were filed with the Licking County officials at Newark by Joe Shipley of Jacksontown.

Shipley said he would not attempt an action against Cox or the newspaper men personally stating that the laws limit to deal only with the operators of the cars.

FOR REDENBAUGH BONDS

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 16.—Petitions for authority to issue bonds for a cement road along the county line between Shelby and Rush counties was filed with the state tax board today. The petitions were filed by J. A. Redenbaugh of Rush county. The amount of the bonds to be issued were $41,920. A similar petition was filed by Shelby county a month ago.

ASSEMBLY TO PAY EXPENSES

No Deficit in Chautauqua This Year in Spite of Increased Costs in All Departments

HOW OFFICIALS MANAGED IT

Raising Price of Guarantors' Tickets For Next Year Imperative Rain Is No Handicap

For the first time during the sixteenth annual session of the Rush county chautauqua, rain got in its handwork on Sunday, the closing day, but in this day of automobiles it does not interfere much. This was proved yesterday when the crowd was practically normal in spite of a steady downpour of rain all afternoon and threatening weather with occasional showers at night.

In view of these handicaps, the Sunday crowd was a revelation to chautauqua officials and others who feared the attendance would be considerably reduced, and put the association safely over the deadline for this year. It was announced today that receipts were large enough to pay this year's expenses and that there would be no deficit in spite of increased expenses and improvements made on the stage at a cost of $50.

The fact that Sunday's receipts were only $25 less than the closing day last year is evidence enough that rain did not cut much of a figure in the attendance. The afternoon gate admissions ran $50 less than on the afternoon of the last day in 1919, but last night's receipts were $25 more for the closing program last year. The coliseum was comfortably filled yesterday afternoon and last night practically every seat was taken.

Chautauqua officials said today that twelve hundred guarantors tickets for next year had been pledged at the advanced price of two dollars. This is the same number as has always been issued and they were as quickly taken by guarantors as when they sold for $1.50. Appearing in the list of guarantors for next year are twenty-four persons who were never guarantors before. All of them signed voluntarily. This means that some persons who neglected to sign a pledge will not have the privilege of being a guarantor next year because the limit has been reached.

It was announced during the week that the guarantors' tickets would be two dollars and there apparently was no complaint on that score. People generally realize that talent like everything else costs more and many marveled at the fact that the chautauqua was able to operate without a deficit this year at the same price which has always been charged.

It would have been impossible to sell season tickets for $1.50 this year if it had not been for the two political days when there was no expense for speakers, and because of the fact that Charles E. Watkins, who spoke twice on the opening day only charged $50 whereas the expense of two Sunday lectures is generally $250.

The increase in the price of season tickets was imperative because talent will be even more costly next year than this because of the increased expense of traveling. Furthermore, the additional revenue will enable the program committee to obtain more costly talent.

GRUBBS PROVIDES BOND

Otis Grubbs of Indianapolis, who was arrested late Friday and brought here on a charge of grand larceny, was released from jail yesterday when he provided a cash bond of $500. The charge against Grubbs was filed by A. N. Harold, who alleges that he took about $60 worth of furnishings that belonged in the building formerly used by the Windsor Hotel. Grubbs and two other men were engaged in decorating the building. No further arrests have been made.

LAW ALLOWS 60 DAYS FOR CHANGE

Legislation by Special Session Gives Rushville Until Sept. 26 to Change Classification

IN 4TH CLASS SINCE 1919

Increased Valuations Advances City But Council Never Raised Salaries of Officials

The fact that Rushville is one of twenty-two Indiana cities which have been advanced in classification either by increased population or increased valuation of property for taxation purposes which was announced in the Indianapolis Sunday Star, was not news here because it was known last fall that Rushville would be rated as a fourth class city when her taxables were boosted above $7,500,000, after the state board of tax commissioners put on the horizontal increases in assessments.

Although entitled to an advance in salary under the law, the Rushville city officials have never taken advantage of the opportunity to increase their pay. Whether they will yet avail themselves of the opportunity, which will cease to exist September 26, under the terms of a law passed by the special session of the legislature, is not known.

Emergency legislation was passed by the special session to facilitate the transition of cities from one class to another, providing that when one city moves up to the next higher class, the city officials may receive the increased pay of the new classification providing the city council acts on the matter within sixty days after the passage of the act, which was approved by the governor July 28.

This law also provides that cities of the fourth class such as Rushville may abolish the board of public works and the board of public safety and place these duties in the hands of special committees of the council. It is further stated that in fourth class cities the mayor shall act as city judge. The old law on this subject made these two boards and a city judge mandatory but few cities thus advanced to the fourth class acted as the law directed, but continued with the old organization.

Connersville and Shelbyville, like Rushville, are both advanced to fourth class cities by reason of their property valuations, but Greenfield, Greensburg and other county seat towns in this section remain in the fifth class except Newcastle, which becomes a fifth class city because of the 1920 census giving it a population of more than 10,000.

ARRESTED FOLLOWING FIGHT SUNDAY NIGHT

Harry (Paddy) Barrett Is Accused of Assaulting Fred Bever—Virgil Miller Is Held

CHARGED WITH TWO OFFENSES

Harry (Paddy) Barrett was arrested last night by Patrolman Pea, charged with assault and battery, after a fight on the streets in which Fred Bever was alleged to have been assaulted by Barrett. Barrett and two other men were in West First street, just off of Main, and when the policeman arrived, Bever was said to be getting the worst of the fight, and he separated them. No charges were preferred against the other two men, as the policeman did not see them strike Bever, and stated that they were attempting to separate the two men.

Patrolman Pea also arrested Virgil Miller Saturday night, twice within ten minutes of each other. He was first arrested charged with violating the parking ordinance, and ten minutes later was arrested for turning his machine around in the middle of a block and stopping traffic while doing so.

All three cases were scheduled to come up for a hearing at 4 p. m.

BELIEVED FACTORY AFIRE

Someone Phoned Alarm When Lights Were Turned On

The fire department responded to a telephone call shortly after eight o'clock Saturday night to the Reynolds Manufacturing Company, where a person in that vicinity became alarmed, when the lights in the building were suddenly put on by an employe who was returning with an automobile belonging to the firm.

Chief Williamson stated today that people should be certain that a fire is in progress before turning in an alarm, and it must be borne in mind that anyone found calling the fire department where there is no fire, is subject to a fine of $25 and imprisonment. A device is being introduced in the telephone office to check up all telephone calls coming into the fire station, and people should heed the warning.

BOLSHEVIK IN 5 MILES OF WARSAW

Russians Flung Line Half Way Around Capital and Battle Starts Along Whole Front

REDS ORDERED TO TAKE CITY

Documents Taken From Prisoners by Poles Disclose Such Commands Were Issued

(By United Press.)

Moscow, Aug. 16.—The Bolsheviks have pushed their lines to a point five miles from Warsaw where the battle is continuing, it was officially announced today. The communiqué said there was fighting on the entire line, five miles from Warsaw, on the east side of the capital.

The Russians have flung their line one-half way around Warsaw, it was officially announced today.

Warsaw, Aug. 16.—A great battle for Warsaw was started along the entire front, the war office's official statement declared today.

Both the Poles and the Russians have launched attacks at many places where fighting raged.

The third and sixteenth Bolshevik armies have received definite orders to capture Warsaw at any cost, according to documents taken from Russian prisoners, the war office announced.

Every kind of arms would not halt the attack now, it was stated. The sound of battle has been distinctly audible in Warsaw for hours and at night the sky in the north and east is like a horseshoe of fire.

Many shops are boarded and houses deserted. The streets are empty. Processions of thousands of wounded are coming back from the front. The men received the best care possible but surgical facilities are inadequate.

"There was a very serious attack launched against us from the northern works," the communiqué said.

"The Poles were attacked and dispersed three regiments. One Bolshevik detachment was completely massacred. There was an unusual battle at Cholodoff sector with the cavalry attacking cavalry."

U. S. CRUISER SENT TO BALTIC

Washington, Aug. 16.—Rear Admiral Huse, commanding the United States Cruiser Pittsburgh, has been ordered to the Baltic Sea to protect American citizens in that district.

The Pittsburgh will be accompanied by a destroyer. The naval department took this step in the belief that American refugees will be fleeing to the Baltic ports as the result of the Bolshevik offensive against Poland, it was announced.

The American naval force in the Black Sea, Mediterranean and Adriatic waters where conditions are also unsettled, will soon be reinforced by the battleship St. Louis, and by six destroyers for that district.

HITS HIGH LIVING COSTS IN NEW WAY

Roy L. Smith Gets in Some Big Blows at The Chautauqua Sunday Afternoon

FOUR KINDS OF LIVING

Garner Jubilee Co. Please Large Audiences—Crawford Adams Co. a Winner

Roy L. Smith, rapid-fire talker as well as thinker, who addressed a chautauqua audience Sunday afternoon, attacked the high cost of living question at a new angle. He called it the high cost of low living and proved how costly it is not to live on a high physical, intellectual, moral and spiritual plane.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, is pastor of the Simpson Methodist church in Minneapolis, gave his pedigree first so there would be no misunderstandings on that score, and then he literally tore present day living to shreds by showing its absurdities.

The Garner Jubilee company entertained the audience for an hour in the afternoon and with a complete concert at night. They were at their best with the camp meeting songs and old familiar melodies of the southland. That they made good in the afternoon, although they had been up all night and had had no noon meal, was demonstrated by the size of the crowd which packed the coliseum at night.

The Crawford Adams company lived up to its reputation in the concert Saturday and delighted an audience which was larger than the rule for Saturday night. Mr. Adams captivated the crowd with his violin playing and they kept him at it until his fingers became so sore that he could no longer press the strings—so he told a story. Mr. Adams demonstrated his versatility by rendering some very classical numbers and then calling on the audience to suggest something for him to play, popular or otherwise. Close to a dozen suggestions were made and he played every one of them in fine fashion, with one exception, and he evidently forgot that, because no one doubted that he could play it after he had revealed his ability by covering such a wide range of music.

The accompanist contributed much to the delightful program and Miss Roseth Breed, reader, delighted ed the audience with her character sketches. Her imitations of the girl at the movies, the girl enjoying her first ride in a Ford and other characterizations were equally amusing.

The Sunday afternoon program started one-half hour late because Mr. Smith was not due until 3:30, having been on the train since 9 o'clock Saturday night, and the prelude was deferred until 2:30.

The lecturer got out of a taxi about 3:35 and in two minutes was firing away with gatting gun regularity. He kept it up until 5:35 and interest never lagged a minute.

"The most contagious thing in the world is good health," he added, discussing the high cost of low physical living. "The trouble is that people expose themselves by low living to the flu, love affairs and so forth when they should be exposing themselves to good health. If the Lord had not done more to keep people well than to make them sick, the whole race would be exterminated."

Three requisites of keeping well, he said, was to get plenty of fresh air, plenty of sunshine and plenty of sleep.

"I have been told," he continued, "that there is so much fresh air in the country because the country folk keep all of the bad air shut up in their houses. Put up the windows, the draft is over. It is an easy matter to get to the grave because three paths are open—the allopath, homeopath and the osteopath, but health is still easier by obeying the laws of nature."

"Get plenty of sunshine," the speaker said, "The physicians and hospitals use it to cure tuberculosis. But it is put to better use in preventing tuberculosis. It is the best disinfectant in the world. Try more of it."

He also urged plenty of sleep and in passing said that he did not understand why, if God had intended men to use their noses for a smokestack, it was not put on upside down.

"It is not a question of how much it costs you to get through college, but it is a question of how much it is going to cost you to get through life without a college education," said Smith, discussing the high cost of low intellectual living.

He defined wealth as the power to enjoy life. He showed how wealthy people were because they possessed all their senses and proved that every person was worth a half million from the neck up, even if it was solid ivory. The lecturer declared he was worth a million below the belt because John D. Rockefeller had offered a million for a new stomach.

"America has learned how to laugh but has forgotten how to think," asserted Smith. "The sign of an educated man is that he can be happy after spending a half hour with himself."

"Every man or woman here either raises or lowers the average in Rushville by their moral living," declared the speaker. "I don't know anything about your community, but my guess is that the best thing some

335 - Acre Farm At Auction - 335

Two Miles East of Rushville.

This farm, we think to be one of as good as you will have an opportunity to buy, as it is good rich, sugar tree land and has been seeded to clover regularly and I expect has had more hogs fed on it than any same amount of acres in Rush county.

Buildings are in good shape—Two houses, two barns and other buildings, extra good and complete, tool sheds, cribs, hog houses. Fencing in good average shape. Ditching extra good. Out of the 335 acres, 300 of same is good plow land, balance good pasture land with never failing running spring water.

As this is probably one of the largest tracts of land ever sold at auction throughout this section, we will offer it in lots of from one-fourth up to the entire body, giving everyone a chance at this great opportunity.

All Personal Property to be Sold on Same Day and on Premises.

There will be a big lunch served at noon and we insist that you come out and spend the day with us and witness one of the biggest sales ever held in Southern Indiana.

On amounts of $100 and over, one-third cash, one-third in twelve months, and one-third in 24 months. Interest 8% semi-annually.

Teen Years of Rheumatism Gone and He Feels Like New Man, Says Peck

"Before I took Tanlac I had suffered with muscular rheumatism for teen years, but now I am free from pain and have gained twenty pounds in weight," said Loren R. Peck, of 1032 East Columbia street, Indianapolis, Ind., who is employed at L. & N. Railroad shops.

"My arms and fingers were so stiff and sore that I couldn't handle wrench or hammer to do any job and when I tried to get under car or stoop over my back hurt bad I could hardly straighten up. Times I had awful pains and aches after eating, gas would come and work up around my heart with a pressure that nearly took my breath. I couldn't eat what I liked if I ate anything like cabbage made me sick. I felt tired all the time and became so weak and nervous that I couldn't rest at night. I started getting better before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac. My rheumatism is all gone and now do my work at the shops well as any man there. I eat what I want, even cabbage, and never have any more trouble. I only taken five bottles of Tanlac and feel as well as I ever did in life."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. Johnson Co., in Milroy by D. Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Brown, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McRae, and in New Salem by Mrs. Hankins. E. R. 2—Adv.

Foley Kidney Pills

There is no evidence to prove that the "movies" are imperiling the sight of the nation. Careful investigation leads to the opposite conclusion.

Recent improvements and greater care in operating the projecting machines have almost entirely eliminated the mechanical defects, so you may be quite certain that when your eyes trouble you while viewing moving pictures, it is due, not to the pictures, but to defective eyes which call for optometry's aid.

The Negro at The Polls

Time was when Henry N. Spaan, who delivered the main address at the chautauqua democratic day, sought to drive the negro out of his party, but he may feel differently about the matter now that he is a candidate for congress. At any rate it is not amiss to show his attitude which is reflected in a speech made before the German-American Democratic club in Indianapolis March 20, 1902.

Mr. Spaan's speech on that occasion was indorsed every word of it, by the club, according to a report of the meeting of the club which was published as follows March 20, 1902 in the Indianapolis Journal:

The German-American Democratic club held its annual election last night and turned over a new leaf

Alluding to the negro Spaan said:

by denouncing the negro in politics.

The club expressed itself unanimously in favor of ridding the party of "niggers."

After the meeting the members shook hands and congratulated each other over its action and new policy with declarations that it would go into effect at once and last forever.

The action was taken by endorsing "every word" of a speech that had been made by Henry A. Spaan during the evening, which was a vituperative arraignment against the negro at the polls.

Alleging to the negro Spaan said:

The home merchant does charge a higher price—a much higher one than he did before the war. He is compelled to do so or go out of business.

He is paying enormous high prices for his goods in the wholesale markets.

He is paying freight rates and cartage.

His help costs him more money and his overhead expenses are greater.

Everywhere he turns he is forced to pay a heavy increase in the cost of conducting his business.

Added to this, he is under an additional pressure in paying the high cost of supporting his family and himself.

All of this must come out of the business, and this can only be done by charging a reasonable percentage of profit over the wholesale cost of his goods.

The home merchant can not afford to profiteer. Were he to do so he would soon be trapped and would thereafter be a dead one in his normal condition.

Prices are high—abnormally high—but we believe the home merchants are as reasonable in their charges as can be expected under existing conditions.

We want to build a white man's party in this community and not based upon votes bought and sold as vegetables are in the market. Personally I am in favor of the Democratic party inserting a plank in its platform that we are tired of a negro domination and that we will only ask white men to vote with us, and that we are opposed to being ruled by a class of men that are bought and sold as vegetables on the market."

Joseph Schaub moved that a vote of thanks be tendered the speaker for his address and his motion was amended so as to "endorse every word" of the speech. The motion carried by a unanimous rising vote. Other speeches were made by Jacob Hinckley, Albert Sahm and Chris Warweg.

Let's be Fair

During the past few months we have several times heard our home merchants criticised for the prices they charge for their goods.

The home merchant does charge a higher price—a much higher one than he did before the war. He is compelled to do so or go out of business.

He is paying enormous high prices for his goods in the wholesale markets.

He is paying freight rates and cartage.

His help costs him more money and his overhead expenses are greater.

Everywhere he turns he is forced to pay a heavy increase in the cost of conducting his business.

Added to this, he is under an additional pressure in paying the high cost of supporting his family and himself.

All of this must come out of the business, and this can only be done by charging a reasonable percentage of profit over the wholesale cost of his goods.

The home merchant can not afford to profiteer. Were he to do so he would soon be trapped and would thereafter be a dead one in his normal condition.

By General State Legislature

6. Per Diem of Auditor and Treasurer as Members of Board of Review. The auditor and treasurer of each county will be entitled to a compensation of $5. for each day they serve as members of the county board of review during the years 1919 and 1920.

7. Salaries of City Officials.—In all cases where any city advances to a higher class, by reason of an increase in population or assessed valuation of property, all city officers are entitled to receive the salaries as fixed by law for such city of a higher class, and the common council may adopt an ordinance within 60 days fixing the salaries of city officials. In fourth class cities, the council may abolish the board of public safety and delegate the duties of such boards to a committee of the council.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Rushville people.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3rd St., Rushville, says: "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. It started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys; dizzy spell followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind that I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me I get Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give me good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

SPEAKER PLAYS "GOODRICHISM"

Dr. C. B. McCulloch, Democratic Nominee for Governor, Devotes Time to State Administration

SPEAKS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Henry N. Spaan, Congressional Candidate, Lauds Wilson Regime and Criticizes Harding

The democratic speakers at the chautauqua Saturday afternoon, Dr. C. B. McCulloch, candidate for governor, and Henry N. Spaan, candidate for congress from the seventh district, upheld the Wilson administration, pointing out the wonderful things that it had accomplished, and severely criticized the four years of "Goodrichism".

J. Arbuckle, candidate for joint senator, acted as chairman, and before the speaking began, introduced the various state candidates who were present, and also presented the county candidates who were on the stage and in the audience.

Dr. McCulloch was the first speaker of the afternoon and devoted the first part of his address to incidents in his own life that connected with the world War, in which he took a part, in foreign lands. His address led up slowly to the administration of Woodrow Wilson, and with his name being mentioned, the crowd cheered wildly.

The speaker did not tarry long on the affairs of the nation, but came down to those in which he is most interested—the affairs of Indiana. Praising the administrations of Thomas Marshall and Samuel Ralston, he urged that "Goodrichism" be thrown out, and common sense restored such as was had during the two former democratic administrations.

The gubernatorial candidate strongly emphasized the fact that the affairs of this state were formerly divided into three parts, the judiciary, legislative and executive, but that for four years two of these had given way for the executive, and that it was "truly a Goodrich administration".

The tax law was assailed from every angle, and stood out prominently as the main issue from the democratic viewpoint in the coming election. He promised that the democratic administration would pledge themselves to right the wrongs of the tax law, and asserted that "there are many phases that need changing".

Dr. McCulloch scored the present administration for spending money foolishly in calling two special sessions of the legislature. He pointed out the first special session was for a single day in which the women were granted suffrage.

Declaring, "You people must not misunderstand me; I am and always was for women suffrage, but there were other things that should have been considered when the special session was called. What I do object to is, before Gov. Goodrich would call that legislature into session, he saw and secured a promise from every republican that only that one thing would come before it, and nothing more", said Dr. McCulloch.

"There were so many other things right at that time that needed attention," continued the speaker. There was the recognition of the soldiers, a blue sky law and many other things that I could mention, but the governor held them down to his one particular thought. It is another example of executive rule, where the executive has usurped his power".

Then he took up the second special session, calling attention to the fact that there was some fault found even among republicans, with the tax law, because it was changed at this session. He criticized the Blue Sky law and stated that the democrats when given control would mend both of these things, and promised that the public school system in the state would be improved, and that the public institutions would be operated on a better scale, especially the insane hospitals.

Henry Spaan, the next speaker, dwelt more with national affairs, reading the greater part of this speech from manuscript form. The first half hour he attacked Senator Harding, asserting that republican newspapers throughout the country were not in favor of the candidate, and devoted the half hour to reading editorials from various newspapers.

The editorial as a whole were taken from the Indianapolis news papers, and were critical of the first few days following the election in Chicago.

He emphasized that what he was saying was not the thoughts of the democrats, but that the words came from the organs of the republican party.

He declared that the republican party did not hold a convention in Chicago, but that a small group of senators held a convention, and in the hours of early morning put across Sen. Harding, even though he was not the choice of the people.

Pointing with pride to the administration of Woodrow Wilson, he declared that the republicans were basing claims against it on trivial grounds, pointing out the strife and serious handicap that the president had been under for four years.

Mr. Spaan also declared that at the beginning of the war Great Britain had ten billion dollars more in wealth in their country than the United States, and at the close of the war the wealth in this country exceeded the combined wealth of Great Britain, France and Germany, and that the European countries today owed the United States eleven billion dollars, and before the war we owed them four billion dollars.

His concluding remarks dwelt upon the policies and principles of the democratic party both in local and foreign affairs.

WARN AGAINST THE RECURRANCE OF PEST

Entomologist States Chinch Bugs Will Reappear Next Spring Unless Adults Are Killed Off

IS A VERY DESTRUCTIVE BUG

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 16.—The entomological division of the state conservation points out the possibility of a recurrence of the chinch bug pest next spring, and warns that if we have a mild winter the brood will be unusually large unless steps are taken this fall to kill off the adults. The bugs winter as adults in sheltered places along fences, in ditches and where grasses and weeds accumulate. Farmers are advised to keep such places cleared and if there was a heavy infestation of bugs this summer, remove fodder shocks from infected fields as the bugs will winter well in them if they are permitted to remain.

Chinch bugs migrate from winter quarters to the wheat, oats and rye in early spring and then pass into the green corn in vast numbers in search of succulent food. They will literally kill a corn crop if their advance is not stopped.

Dr. McCulloch scored the present administration for spending money foolishly in calling two special sessions of the legislature. He pointed out the first special session was for a single day in which the women were granted suffrage.

Declaring, "You people must not misunderstand me; I am and always was for women suffrage, but there were other things that should have been considered when the special session was called.
